

CARE

The International Organization for Migration (IOM) offers reintegration assistance to Victims of Trafficking returning voluntarily from Austria, France, Portugal, Spain and the United Kingdom to their countries of origin (outside the European Union) from September 2013 to July 2015.

According to your personal needs, IOM can support you with:

1 Reception assistance

- Reception at the airport
- Shelter
- Medical check-up
- Transportation to your final destination

2 Reintegration assistance

- Temporary housing
- Vocational training
- Support to set up an income generating project
- Child care
- Health care

3 Monitoring

If you wish so, IOM can follow up on your reintegration project over 12 months so as to further support you if need be.

Contact upon return

The local IOM office or a partner organization will be your contact point after the return and will provide you with further information and reintegration assistance.

Confidentiality

All information and personal data concerning your return and reintegration project will be confidentially treated.
